AN NOWODHOW

AUTUMN 2, WEEK 2

Head of School Message

Welcome back to our 'An Nowodhow' newsletters for this half term. It has been a busy couple of weeks indeed.

Last week, we had the pleasure of welcoming The Good Companions to school. The visitors were treated to some singing, biscuits and a chat with our year 5/6 children. It was lovely to open our doors and facilitate these links between generations.

This week has had two incredibly important themes: Remembrance and Anti-bullying. Myself and Mr Mitchell were joined by many members of the school community at the village Remembrance service on Sunday. Children continued their Remembrance learning and observance throughout the week in school, reflecting on the courage and sacrifice of those who have served in times of conflict.

The children have also taken part in a range of activities and events this week to mark 'Anti-Bullying Week 2025'. From odd socks to anti-bullying assemblies and class activities, the children have thought carefully about how they can use their 'power for good' to ensure we continue make a stand against bullying.

Have a lovely weekend.
